Gas Plus Robbery

For March 18, 2008

CRIME STOPPERS and the Springfield Police Department are asking for help in identifying the suspect in an armed robbery at Gas Plus at 2712 N. Kansas Expressway. On Wednesday, February 13, 2008, at 8:15 PM a white male walked up to the store from the woods nearby. After waiting for a customer to pay for their gas, the male displayed a handgun to the attendant and demanded the wallet. After obtaining the wallet, the suspect left eastbound and apparently got into a car parked on the Golden Corral parking lot north of the gas station.

The suspect was described as being a white male, around 25 years of age, 5'6" to 5'8" tall, 130 pounds, with very dark eyebrows. He was wearing a black or blue ski mask or scarf-type thing over his mouth and nose, a black hoodie or jacket, red shirt, and blue jeans.
