February 12, 2010

News Release

For Immediate Release

H1N1 and Seasonal Flu Update for February 11, 2010

Week 18: No new doses of H1N1 vaccine arrived since last reported on 12/18/09

As of February 8, 2010 (last reporting period) 76,044 doses of H1N1 vaccine have been administered in Greene County (incomplete reporting).

- Week 1 = 855 of 1,400 doses were administered. (61%)
- Week 2 = 2,089 of 3,000 were administered. (69.6%)
- Week 3 = 4,950 of 4,400 were administered (112.5 %)
- Week 4 = 3,313 of 3,100 were administered (107%)
- Week 5 = 5,205 of 9,600 were administered (54%) *second shipment arrived mid-week; adjusted 11/15/09 based on complete reporting
- Week 6 = 6,837 of 13,300 were administered (51%) *second shipment arrived mid-week; adjusted 11/19/09 based on complete reporting
- Week 7 = 6,949 of 7,500 were administered (93%)
- Week 8 = 5,332 of 3,160 were administered (169%)
- Week 9 = 5,381 of 18,341 were administered (29%)
- Week 10 = 9,955 of 15,910 were administered (63%)
- Week 11 = 6,070 of 14,500 were administered (42%)
- Week 12 = 4,614 were administered
- Week 13 = 2,601 were administered
- Week 14 = 2,366 were administered
- Week 15 = 3,356 were administered
- Week 16 = 2,952 were administered
- Week 17 = 2,046 were administered
- Week 18 = 1,173 were administered
- Total= 76,044 were given out of 100,911 total vaccine received (75%)

During the week of February 1-7, 2010 six new cases of laboratory confirmed flu and zero new cases of laboratory confirmed H1N1 cases were reported. All six of the confirmed flu cases were Influenza type A.

For more information contact:
Katie Towns-Jeter MPH
Public Information Administrator
417-874-1205