Police Host FREE Safety Expo June 25

The Springfield Police Department will host the citizen safety expo this Saturday June 25th from 10am until 7pm at Parkview High School.

The purpose of the expo is to educate the public in all realms of safety not only within their homes, but also in their places of business. The SPD will be bringing in experts from around the PD to speak on key topics to include:

- Neighborhood Watch
- Shoplifting Prevention
- First Call to Completed Case
- Crime Stoppers
- ID Theft
- Residential Security
- Date Rape Prevention
- Street Gangs
- Embezzlement
- Identifying Counterfeit Money
- Internet Safety
- Seventeen and Bulletproof

Presentations will begin at 11am and will rotate throughout the day. The SPD will also display several vehicles for the public to view which include the DWI van, the mobile command post, two new SPD vehicles, motorcycles, Segways, bicycles and a SWAT vehicle.

The public is encouraged to attend.
