

Mayor's Commission for Children Meeting Minutes

Tuesday, February 11th, 2020 8 a.m.

Springfield Chamber of Commerce

Bill Foster South Conference Room

202 S John Q Hammons Parkway

Springfield MO 65806

Commission members present: Missy Riley, Christy Davis, Susie Henderson, Monica Horton, Bria Coale, Jennifer McClure, Linda Saturno. Absent: Brandy Harris

Advisory Council present: Amy Chenoweth, Kimberly Shinn Brown, Rinda Davis, Mike White, Carol Wooten, Jan Fisk

Guest: Aaron Lockee

Chariman Susie Henderson opened the meeting and welcomed everyone. Jennifer McClure made a motion to accept the January minutes as presented. Monica Horton seconded that motion. Minutes were approved.

The presenters Aaron Locke Hilderbrand and Kay Logsdon from Culture Waves a division of Noble and Associate gave an interesting data driven presentations on Generations. Culture Waves are currently working on a data driven project with the City and other collaborators regarding forecasting our workforce development trends for the next 10-20 years. More info will be coming out on their work with this large group.

This presentation was to make us mindful of how distinct the generations are in their preferences and strengths and weaknesses. Companies use this data to market to the various generations.

Our next meeting in March will be a planning meeting and discussion, Round the Table will be available to share upcoming Spring activities. Amy St. John will be our guest in April to give us an update on School improvement data from the individual schools.
