- The City will utilize an additional $1.5 million of HOME funding in conjunction with HOME-ARP funding in the development of affordable rental housing.

Staff Developing HOME-ARP RFPs

- Per the approved Allocation Plan, the City staff is currently developing 3 separate Requests for Proposals (RFPs) for:
 - Acquisition and Development of Non-Congregate Shelters
 - Supportive Services
 - Development of Affordable Rental Housing
- Per the Allocation Plan Intents to Submit must be submitted to the City within 20 days of issuance of RFP.
- Applicants will be provided an additional 30 days to submit their full application for funding.

Strategic Use of Funding for Non-Congregate Shelter

- We must be strategic in the development of a Non-Congregate Shelter, by utilizing HOME-ARP funding in conjunction with ARPA funding.
- It is estimated that the minimum cost associated with the development of a Non-Congregate Shelter is $5 Million.
